FATHER DAVID FOX'S MESSAGE TO THE FAITHFUL

Acting Rector's Letter

On the Great Fast (See Bishop Kallistos Ware's Introduction to The Lenten Triodion)

Why do we fast?

To lose weight? Because the 'material' world is not important or bad? Because some foods are 'impure' or bad for us? To earn points with God? No.

We fast to build 'spiritual muscle', to purify our physical and spiritual senses, to learn our dependence upon God.

There is an 'inner' and an 'outer' aspect of the fast.

The 'outer' fast is bodily. The full bodily fast of Great Lent is to refrain from drinking alcohol, having sexual relations, and eating meat, fish products, dairy products and cooking with oil for most of Great Lent (wine is allowed Saturday and Sundays). There are some days when a "strict" fast is prescribed (no food or drink). Also, we ought never eat to satiety (i.e., to never feel completely full after a meal). The reason for this bodily fast is essentially to teach the body to be obedient to the soul, to humble us and to help us experience bodily our dependence upon God.

The 'inner' fast involves prayer; participating in the Church's Mysteries (attending Church services and receiving the Sacraments); confession; studying the Holy Scriptures, Lives of or writings by the Saints; refraining from passions such as judgment of others, anger, hatred, pride; and practicing acts of obedience, compassion, humility and love, especially to the poor or to those suffering most.

Just as the body and the soul are both important and interrelated, yet the soul is more important and supposed to lead the body, both the 'outer' and the 'inner' aspects of the fast are important and interrelated, yet the 'inner' fast is more important and ought to lead and guide the 'outer' fast.

Fasting is a great tool in the spiritual life, but as with any tool, fasting can be dangerous to ourselves and destructive to others and therefore ought to be undertaken under the guidance of a spiritual father.

A nun once remarked, "the monastic life is like climbing straight up a mountain, the married life is like taking switchbacks: both paths can take you to the top, but one is more direct, the other is more gradual." A good general rule when observing the Lenten Fast and in teaching it to children is: go gradual and steady, start slow, and year by year, with the help of a guide, add little by little.

There are many personal factors to consider before undertaking the Fast: Do I live with non-Orthodox people in my home or am I in the presence of non-Orthodox often? What are my health conditions? What are my work conditions? What other 'strains' are there in my life? What is my relationship to my spouse and the desire, spiritual level of my spouse (in marriage: it's not about us and our 'religious needs'; it's about accepting a cross for the other and often 'praying [and observing the fast'] in secret')? Therefore, it is important to seek guidance before undertaking the Fast.

If you would like to talk more, I am here to help you craft the Fast for your situation. Just reach out.

Yours in Christ,
+Fr. David

ANNOUNCEMENTS

COFFEE HOUR - The Coffee Hour sign up sheet is located upstairs in the Church Hall by the door to the kitchen. Please write your name, email address and phone number by the date you sign up for. If you have any questions, please see Linda Biando.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for volunteering to sponsor coffee hour! Your generosity is greatly appreciated. Many people choose a date to sponsor coffee hour to celebrate a special day, like a name day, birthday, anniversary or feast day. You can also join in with other families to sponsor coffee hour as a group.

Coffee hour can be sponsored in two ways; by supplying food directly or by a monetary donation to the church. If you want to bring in food items, here are some guidelines on what to bring: enough items for 70- 80 people, 1 can of coffee, 1 gallon of milk (non dairy creamer during Lenten times), paper plates, napkins and cups (no Styrofoam please!)

Since we do not have people who are paid to put the food out or clean up after coffee hour, please take part in this process.

If you would like to sponsor coffee hour through a monetary gift, you may do so with cash or a check in the amount of $40.00. Please speak to Katherine Halkedis or Stephen Murianka at least a week before the date that you have chosen so that the coffee hour items can be purchased. Please pay the donation to Jim Schaeffer, our treasurer.

Occasionally, a memorial date request may conflict with a date that you have already chosen making it necessary to choose another date or perhaps share the date. Your understanding in these cases is truly appreciated.

Again many thanks!!

გმადლობთ, რომ გამოთქვით სურვილი დააფინანსოთ ეკლესიის ტრაპეზი. ვაფასებთ თქვენს ხელგაშლილობას. ხშირად ხალხი ირჩევს რომელიმე განსაკუთრებულ დღეს ტრაპეზის დასაფინანსებლად, მაგალითად, თავისი ანგელოზის დღეს, დაბადების დღეს, წლისთავს ან რაიმე დღესასწაულის დღეს. ასევე, შეგიძლიათ შეუერთდეთ სხვა ოჯახებს და ჯგუფურად დააფინანსოთ ჩვენი ტრაპეზი. ტრაპეზის დაფინანსება შეიძლება მოხდეს ორი გზით: ნივთები გათვლილი უნდა იყოს 70-80 სულზე.

1 ყუთი ყავა. 1 გალონი რძე (მარხვის დღეებში ნაღები უნდა იყოს რძის შემცველობის გარეშე). ქაღალდის (ერთჯერადი) თეფშები, ხელსაწმენდები, ჭიქები. ამ საკითხზე გთხოვთ მიმართოთ კატრინ ჰალკედის ან სტეფანე მურიანკას თქვენს მიერ ტრაპეზის დასაფინანსებლად არჩეულ დღემდე ერთი კვირით ადრე, რომ წინასწარ მოხდეს საჭირო ნივთების შექცნა. გთხოვთ შემოწირულობა გადაეცით ჯიმ შაფერს, ჩვენს ხაზინადარს.

ზოგჯერ შეიძლება მოხდეს თქვენს მიერ არჩეული დღის თანხვედრა ხსოვნის დღესთან, ასეთ შემთხვევაში შეგიძლიათ გაინაწილოთ ეს დღე ან აირჩიოთ სხვა დღე. გმადლობთ გაგებით მოკიდებისთვის.

SUNDAY OF CHEESEFARE EXPULSION OF ADAM FROM PARADISE

(Commemorated on March 6)

As we begin the Great Fast, the Church reminds us of Adam's expulsion from Paradise. God commanded Adam to fast (Gen. 2:16), but he did not obey. Because of their disobedience, Adam and Eve were cast out of Eden and lost the life of blessedness, knowledge of God, and communion with Him, for which they were created. Both they and their descendants became heirs of death and corruption.

Let us consider the benefits of fasting, the consequences of disobedience, and recall our fallen state. Today we are invited to cleanse ourselves of evil through fasting and obedience to God. Our fasting should not be a negative thing, a mere abstention from certain foods. It is an opportunity to free ourselves from the sinful desires and urges of our fallen nature, and to nourish our souls with prayer, repentance, to participate in church services, and partake of the life-giving Mysteries of Christ.

At Forgiveness Vespers we sing: "Let us begin the time of fasting in light, preparing ourselves for spiritual efforts. Let us purify our soul, let us purify our body. As we abstain from food, let us abstain from all passion and enjoy the virtues of the spirit...."
