Troparion – Tone 2 (Resurrection)

*When Thou didst descend to death, O
Life immortal,
Thou didst slay hell with the splendor of Thy Godhead.
And when from the depths Thou didst
raise the dead,
all the powers of heaven cried out:
“O Giver of life, Christ our God, glory to Thee!”*

Kontakion – Tone 1 (St John Chrysostom)

*Most glorious John Chrysostom, the Church of Constantinople greatly rejoiced, receiving the gift of thy holy ^relics;
keeping them as a treasure of great price.
Through thine intercession,
they bring the grace of healing to those who praise thee in hymns.*

Welcome to all visitors! Please join us upstairs in the church hall for coffee hour after liturgy.

Prayers for those in our Sts. Peter and Paul community (parishioners, family, friends) can be listed for remembrance in our litanies during the Liturgy. Feel free to give names to Fr. Nicholas - please indicate how each person listed is connected to us (parishioner, family, friend, etc.), as well as why we are praying for them (health, memory, travel, etc.).

Confessions can be heard by appointment. If you need, I will come to you during the week. Please do not hesitate to call for a time to drop by the church or to have me visit you.

Remembrances for both the living and the dead during the prayers of preparation of the Eucharistic Lamb and during the Augmented Litany should be given the week before the desired remembrance so that the names can be put into the bulletin and given to the Deacons for the prayers. Any names of the living that are not marked as sick or traveling will be listed under general prayers.

Colossians 3:12-16 (Epistle)

Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

Matthew 25:14-30 (Gospel)

For the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them. And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey. Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. And likewise he who had received two gained two more also. But he who had received one went and dug in the ground, and hid his lord's money. After a long time the lord of those servants came and settled accounts with them. So he who had received five talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides them.' His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.' He also who had received two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents; look, I have gained two more talents besides them.' His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.' Then he who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed. And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. Look, there you have what is yours.' But his lord answered and said to him, 'You wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed. So you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest. Therefore take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents. For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

SAINT DIMITRI: A PRIEST IN WARTIME PARIS

Have you ever helped somebody, in secret? The Bible tells us that it's good to help people in secret. Then, God, "Your Father, Who sees what is done in secret, will reward you."

Today, we celebrate a newer saint who helped many people in secret. In fact, he saved their lives! Seventy-five years ago was the terrible World War 2. In France, an Orthodox nun named Saint Maria started a special shelter to help people who became poor and sick during the awful war.

Also, during the war, many Jewish people were being hurt and killed by the evil Nazi rule. These French Jewish people weren't Christians, but they went to the Orthodox Christian shelter for help. Saint Maria helped them there. The priest, Father Dimitri Klepinin, helped them too. He knew that if the Jewish people said they were Christians, they would be safe. So, the priest signed his name on pretend baptism certificates to keep them safe. With the certificates, the Jewish people could save their lives!

Soon, the Nazi rulers figured out what Father Dimitri had been doing in secret. They sent him to prison, and he was later killed. God saw what Father Dimitri had been doing in secret too, and as He promised in the Bible, He rewarded him! Now he must be joyful in heaven.

We celebrate St. Dimitri on Sunday, January 27th

House Blessings are coming up in 2019! Please sign up on the sheet upstairs so that we can begin to organize and schedule House blessings. Please be sure to leave your name and phone number. Alternatively, you can call Fr. Nicholas at 860-861-7468 and he will take your information.
